Dear Friend,

I am writing my last letter to you. Hoping you win your suit I am praying for you as I did before and you won I know you will this time. I am going to ask you to do something for ~~you~~ me. I have to get out by the First of April will lose all I got unless I can get Five hundred dollars. Will you ask your friends to help me. I have no place to go and no people as my daughter and I are alone in the world. When I look at your sweet face as I have on of you I cut out of the paper it seems to say you will help me. If I don't get help I don't know where to go as I have been sick and can't work hard as yet. Please let me hear from you I have kept your
